Women's DV Court Assistance Service

Victim Support Services provide a Women's DV Court Assistance Service for women who are applying for, or already have an intervention order.

The aim is to support women within the courts to increase their access to the justice system.

The service provides:

- Work with women who wish to directly apply to the court for an intervention order,
 - Legal advice on all aspects of applying for a new intervention order or intervention order variations and revocations,
 - Assisting women to complete forms and obtain evidence,
 - Advocating for fee waiver, when appropriate,
 - Support women to report breaches,
 - Support women when a defendant breaches.
